

Together!

Cultural connections for quality care at the end of life

Pre-Conference Day Seminar

The Culture of Children

Overview

A paediatric palliative care seminar which looks at perinatal palliative care, ethics, advances in symptom management, end of life discussions, grief in grandparents, clinical supervision and global perspectives. The seminar offers an opportunity for clinicians to extend their knowledge in advanced levels of practice in paediatric palliative care.

Date and time

Thursday 24 September 2009, 10:00 - 17:00
(includes morning tea, afternoon tea and lunch)

Format

Workshop style with participant interaction

Facilitator

Sara Fleming
Nurse Practitioner - Paediatric Palliative Care
Children, Youth & Women's Health Service
Women's and Children's Hospital, Adelaide, Australia

Presenters

- Liese Groot-Alberts, Clinical Supervisor & Lecturer, New Zealand
- Belinda Jennings, King Edward Memorial Hospital, Australia
- Lyn Gillam, Ethicist, Royal Children's Hospital, Australia
- Ross Drake, Paediatric Palliative Care Physician, New Zealand
- Sara Fleming, Nurse Practitioner, Paediatric Palliative Care
- Joan Marston, National Paediatric Manager, Hospice South Africa

Audience

Clinicians who provide care for children with an eventually fatal condition

Maximum number of participants

30

Cost

Refer to the Registration Brochure (page 21) for details. The brochure is available at www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009. For Country Group listings refer to page 14 of the brochure.

Topics

- Perinatal palliative care
- Advances in symptom management
- Ethics
- End of life discussions
- Grief in grandparents
- The clinical supervision model in self care
- Global perspectives

Learning outcomes

- Challenge participants to explore extensions to their clinical care
- Extend knowledge in advanced levels of practice
- Explore emerging areas of interest
- Provoke reflection of sustainable self care measures

Register your interest

To register your interest in this seminar visit

<http://www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009/registration.html>

Further information

For further information visit

w: <http://www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009/>

t: +61 2 6232 4433

e: gillian@palliativecare.org.au