

Together!

Cultural connections for quality care at the end of life

Pre-Conference Day Seminar

Strengthening Palliative Care Volunteerism into the Future

Overview

An interactive and dynamic workshop looking at the trends and challenges impacting on palliative care volunteer services across the Asia Pacific region.

Date and time

Thursday 24 September 2009, 10:00 - 17:00
(includes morning tea, afternoon tea and lunch)

Format

Facilitated discussion and interactive group work

Facilitators

Megan Evans
Training Facilitator, ACT Palliative Care Society, Australia
Sue Salau
Policy Officer, Palliative Care Victoria, Australia

Presenters

- Rev'd Graeme Manolas, Co-ordinator of Pastoral Care Services, Hollywood Private Hospital, Australia
- Barbara Young, Volunteering Consultant, Hume Palliative Care Consultancy Team, Australia
- Marissa Clarkson, Loss & Grief Consultant, Hume Palliative Care Consultancy Team, Australia
- Megan Evans, Training Facilitator, ACT Palliative Care Society
- Sue Salau, Policy Officer, Palliative Care Victoria
- Soon-Ock Choi, Catholic University of Pusan, College of Nursing, Republic of Korea

Audience

Palliative care volunteers, managers of palliative care volunteer services and palliative care service managers

Maximum number of participants

80

Cost

Refer to the Registration Brochure (page 21) for details. The brochure is available at www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009. For Country Group listings refer to page 14 of the brochure.

Topics

- Enabling our ability to care
- Current trends
- Role of the volunteer in community capacity building
- Challenges for managers of palliative care volunteers
- Volunteer experiences in the Asia Pacific region

Learning outcomes

- Strengthened understanding of what gives your life meaning and your attitudes to dying and death
- Increased knowledge of how to support community capacity building
- Increased understanding of factors influencing volunteer recruitment, retention, role and education
- Increased organisational networks across the region

Register your interest

To register your interest in this seminar visit

<http://www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009/registration.html>

Further information

For further information visit

w: <http://www.conlog.com.au/palliativecare2009/>

t: +61 2 6232 4433

e: gillian@palliativecare.org.au